WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

A BARITONE SINGER WILLS HIS VOICE TO A TENOR.

A Goat in a Dream—An Attack on a Night-
Lark—A Scandal Impending—Mr. H. H. as Colonel Sellers—Woman Voter Marshall McMichael—National

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—"I have known many singers in my day and heard many stories about them and their voices, but I have never heard of but one case where a man willied his voice to another," said Mr. L. E. Gammon, the baritone, in talking with the correspondent recently. "Shee" Campbell, did so much in making him famous, he said, that he raised in Saum, the place where I hail from. Before Campbell and Castle began singing in opera, they were hailing singers in a ménagerie troupe, and excellent ones, too. On their first trip to the Pacific coast, they were in a party which included John Heeler, who had a magnificent baritone voice. At that time both Campbell and Castle were tenor singers. Campbell's voice was even higher than that of Castle.

"Heeler got sick and had to be left on the way. He died soon afterward. He felt that he was going to die and told all of the members of the troupe that they would never see him again alive. After he was leaving him, he said, 'Johnny, you may be the last person in this section. It is alleged he induced a well known business man here to give up his business so as to enter into the hailing business.' A building was recently purchased, and everything put in readiness to commence hailing, when it was discovered that Mr. Best did not have money enough to pay one month's rent. The roof would be compromised before the time arrived.

Wm. J. Best, who was arrested in New York on Tuesday and taken to Boston on a charge of mail robbery of $7,000 of a truck, is well known here, and was recently regarded as a remarkable character—not so remarkable for what he has done, but for his talking powers. Though he may be compelled to have any money he has more. Mulvey is the only person in this section. It is alleged he induced a well known business man here to give up his business so as to enter into the hailing business." A building was recently purchased, and everything put in readiness to commence hailing, when it was discovered that Mr. Best did not have money enough to pay one month's rent. The roof would be compromised before the time arrived.

While looking about for another speaker, Mr. Best ran across a journalist here, who not only imagined that he was wealthy, but also that he was a man of many newspapers than any man living. Mr. Best is a wonderful talker, but he more than not match in this man. His idea was to publish a paper simultaneously in twenty cities of this country, every day, and spend his leisure time writing a book of 600 pages in one day. Mr. Best endeavored to pursue his plan, but he was too visionary, thinking he had better wait until he had funds in hand, and so did not establish English opera in this country."

"I have never taken much stock in the message, but it is true that nothing else all day long for the night. When I saw the following morning, he said Johnny Hocker had died. Some weeks afterward Campbell directed him to buy a diamond pin, which he had directed should be sent to him. Wm. J.

It was a note stating that he (Campbell) had asked for the pin, it would be sent him after his (Hocker's) death. The note ended: 'I also will you my voice, which you also need.'

THE EVENING BULLETIN

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1885.

The New York Sun estimates Hill's majority at 11,377.

It were better for the Democratic party had the Mugwump never been born.

Some of the leading Republican papers of New York now admit that the State is reliably Democratic on a full vote.

GENERAL LEE's majority for Governor of Virginia will be over 25,000. It may reach 30,000. The victory of the Virginia Democrats was complete.

The hog cholera never was worse than it is now in Campbell County, Ill. More than a thousand head have died in one township within a few weeks.

SEVENTEN thousand households of tobacco were exported from this country to the Liverpool, London and Bremen markets during the month of September.

HON. CHARLES D. JACOB, of Louisville, the new Minister to Colombia, will leave for his post of duty in a few days. He is the seventh Kentuckian who has filled this mission.

The official vote on the constitutional amendments at the last Ohio election has been canvassed. The total vote cast was 743,453. The amendment abolishing October elections was carried by a vote of 537,000. The terms of township officers was changed from one to three years by a vote of over 400,000.

The Alabama Claims Commission will practically finish its work this month. There have been about 3,500 claims settled, involving some 20,000 persons. It will take all next month, probably, for the Judges to close their work. Of the $9,500,000 appropriated to pay these claims, $4,000,000 will have been used when the business is finally settled.

Ir now turns out that Cleveland isn't indebted to the Mugwumps as much as has generally been considered. It is claimed by the leading journals of New York that his majority in that State last year would have been not less than 5,000 had the Mugwumps not driven away the Independent Irish vote. "This settles it." Down with the Mugwumps! The Democrats will get along without them, hereafter.

The Philadelphia Record says: "A great deal of baldheadedness has been written on the subject of Mr. Cleveland's contribution to the Democratic campaign fund in New York. The Record knows of no standpoint from which the President's act can be criticized. The leading Democrat of New York, it is natural he should send the money. What fair-minded folk except is that the President will neither help the b' nor hunter. And when we remember how, under recent administrations, a local election in an important State meant a hundred Federal officials on the stump, from Cabinet ministers down, a thousand clerks at work on campaign documents, or, at headquarters, or with crisp, new $2 bills, and thousands of Federal employees harried by the collectors of assessments, we must admit that reform has made a gigantic stride since Grover Cleveland assumed the Presidential office."

KENTUCKY NEWS.

For the first time in many years there are two colored men on the grand jury in Louisville.

Elmer McKeye was seriously wounded by the accidental discharge of his gun while hunting near Cynthia.

Grocers and other merchants of Covington are required to pay a license of $30 for every peddling wagon they run.

Near Shelbyville Monday, a stable belonging to John P. Allen, Jr., was destroyed by fire. Four mules that were in it were also lost. The damage will amount to $2,000.

Wm. Murphy was killed by Frank Walker in Nelson County. They quarreled and Walker was shot in the head. He died from the stick and beat Murphy until he died.

Cholera is reported to have become almost an epidemic among turkeys in Fayette county. One farmer on the Russell Cave pile has lost 70 out of 100 from the effects of this deadly disease.—[From the Courier.]

The State Convention of the Y. M. C. A. will meet in this city November 23-29 inclusive. During the session steps will be taken toward building a structure for the use of the association. The southwest corner of Chestnut and Fourth will soon be spoken of as the probable site. The church will be removed and a splendid five-story structure erected. The first floor will be divided into elegant store-rooms, the remainder of the building being for the use of the Y. M. C. A.—[Louisville Post.]

Mr. Stinson, of Peachtree, claims to have made about $10,000 this year swanning knives. He says his boats renting poor land and buying guano.

Conkling's Liver Still sluggish and slow.
[Cincinnati Enquirer.]

New York Republicans are of the opinion that the waters of Carlsbad have not done Mr. Conkling any good.

MRS. SOLOMONS.

An Alleged Kidnaping in a St. Louis Hotel.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Angelina Solomons is the wife of a liquor dealer in Austin, Texas. She is on her way from Pittsburgh, where she had been visiting friends, to home in Indiana. She arrived at the Lodge hotel in this city. The night clerk and porter were hurriedly summoned to her room, where the woman was found deeply agitated. After recovering somewhat, she related that she had been entered by a man who pointed a pistol at her head and threatened to blow out her brains, if she moved or made a noise, searched the apartment and took the front door of the place. He overtook $60 and a gold watch and a star as soon as the robber left. The police affected to believe that the woman is suffering from hallucination, but she persists that she is the victim of a bold thief.

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS.

Judge Yates Supposed to Have Appropriated Large Sum of Money.

PATRICK III., Nov. 6.—A few days ago Mrs. Yester, a prominent lawyer here, for two years, attempted to commit suicide. It is now in a serious condition. He was widely known and popular. The announcement was made yesterday that the judge had spent $10,000 in his defense.

The judge has been the manager or agent of nearly a hundred estates, chiefly those of widows and orphans, whom he charged no fees. He has been accused of having obtained the extent of his embezzlement will not be known. There is a great rush among those having dealings with the judge to see him to stand.

MISS HOWARD'S MISSION.

Widening the Minds of Little, Dusky Sioux—A Love Affair.

BISMARCK, Dak., Nov. 6.—Miss Howard, daughter of Howard, the well known teaturer, who has been devoting herself to the education of the Sioux Indians. She has passed through this city with seven of her dusky pupils en route to Hampton college.

Mrs. Howard is the young woman of whom it has been said in an article which has gone the rounds that she falls in love with one of the young bucks of the tribe, and has since refused to accept the attentions of pale-faced gallants. The girls who were taken care of among the Sioux are the right ones to rule the generalities of the Sioux, and Miss Howard has been at Fort Yates several months looking after their educational interests.

Among the Nailers.

PRINCETON, Nov. 6.—The fight between the nailers and manufacturers is assuming the proportions of a plague. The action is anticipated to continue so long as the nailers, who maintain that their position is hourly becoming stronger on account of the decreased stock and slack demand. Publishers have been very importunate in getting the nailers to give up in having their wages filled, and threatened a permanent removal of their orders. Vice President Stevens of the Nailers association, who is on a visit to the printing and news media of the business, is known to be a fan of the craft, who refuse to divulge it. The trip is regarded with significance by the locked out men.

Dead Anyhow.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 6.—A Santa Fe dispatch says that Maxim A. Padoca, a life convict in the state prison, was killed in a struggle with the sheriff and his deputy to the ground, a distance of sixty feet. He was implicated in the murder of the Nesmith family in Duncan county, two years ago. It is not known whether he attempted to escape or contemplated suicide.
